CARTER BROTHERS ANNOUNCES A NEW JOINT VENTURE WITH ARAMARK

EAST POINT, GA, (February 15, 2017) – Carter Brothers announces a new strategic Joint Venture with Aramark (NYSE:ARMK), a global leader in food, facilities management, and uniforms to deliver expanded integrated facilities management (IFM) solutions.

Carter Brothers, a leading Minority Business Enterprise (MBE), offers integrated facilities management (IFM), project management, electronic security, and electrical and mechanical services driven by its S.M.A.R.T technology (Service Management Account Reporting Tool) platform which offers true real-time reporting to our customers.

“Carter Brothers has a strong track record of partnering with Fortune 500 companies. This joint-venture with Aramark enables us to work together and complement each other’s capabilities and services to drive innovation and service excellence for our shared clients while helping advance their supplier diversity goals,” said John Carter, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the joint venture.

Over the past year, Carter Brothers has established a dedicated Facilities Management team led by Jeff Davis, Vice Chairman and President. This team is responsible for combining our services and years of experience across all industries to insure the success of this Joint Venture. Working together with Aramark, the joint venture will provide services such as operations and maintenance, cleaning/custodial, and grounds and landscaping. We will also offer technical services including strategic facility planning, building commissioning, capital program management, and energy solutions; as well as other support services such as reception, office services, reprographics, mailroom, laundry and linen services, and patient transportation and valet services in its healthcare space.

“Our Joint Venture with Aramark exemplifies the truest core values of Carter Brothers as a company truly committed to finding cutting-edge innovation for our customers and excellent customer service,” said NFL Hall Famer Cris Carter, Chairman of Carter Brothers. “Our diverse supplier chain will exceed customer expectations and transform the IFM space.”

“The greatest catch of my business career” – Cris Carter
